

INVITATION

Intellectual Property in the Digital Environment

On: Monday, January 26th, 2015 – 18:00 hrs onwards

Venue: Allen & Overy, 33 Avenue JF. Kennedy 1855 Luxembourg

Conference followed by networking cocktail

Context: The interaction between IP and the digital world is a source of continuous challenge and has led to some of the most mediatized litigation and legislative discussions today. The issues vary from copyright licensing practices, liability of ISPs, database systems and cross-border transfer of works to trademark, domain name and patent issues. Our speakers shall take us through some of the current issues and help us understand the trends in relation to IP protection.

Ms. Michele Woods

Michele is the Director of Copyright Law Division at the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO), Geneva. She has over 20 years of copyright law experience. Her responsibilities include development of multilateral copyright & related rights agreements, provision of legislative assistance on copyright and related rights laws, and implementation of copyright and related rights treaties administered by WIPO.

Ms. Katia Manhaeve

Katia Manhaeve is a partner at Allen & Overy where she leads the Luxembourg IP and TMT practice. She focuses on trademark, copyright, domain name and patent issues and also specializes in TMT issues, distribution law, e-commerce and the life sciences sector. Katia is active in several professional bodies advising on IP-related issues.

Mr. Lex Kaufhold

Lex is the Director of the Intellectual Property Office in the Ministry of Economy and Foreign Trade in Luxembourg. He is in charge of all matters concerning patents, trademarks, design and authors' rights in Luxembourg, and represents the Luxembourgish government in international IP organizations, such as OAMI, the EPO, the WIPO, etc.
